Buddy programme	Upon arrival at UBB, students coming from partner universities can be assigned a buddy (tutor) - a Romanian student who will help them get around town, move within the university and assist them in all of the necessary procedures.
------------------------	--

Accommodation https://www.ubbcluj.ro/en/studenti/campus/spatii_cazare	Upon arrival, the students accommodated in the UBB dormitories will have to sign a contract with the dormitory administrator (standard procedure).
Residence permit	All foreign students will have to apply for a residence permit within the first 30 days from their arrival. The residence permit will have to cover their entire stay within the Romanian territory. Information about the application procedure will be given to them by the CCI staff. NOTE: Upon applying for a residence permit, students applying for the residence permit need to have proof of the entire sum of money that is needed to sustain their mobility (approx. 300 EURO/month)
C. Practical information & living expenses in Cluj-Napoca
Enrolment at UBB	Upon their immediate arrival, the CCI staff will issue requests for enrolment at the faculties the students want to study.
Town of Cluj-Napoca http://www.visitcluj.ro/home.html http://www.visitclujnapoca.ro/en/	Counting almost 500.000 inhabitants (of which around 100.000 are students), Cluj Napoca is a vibrant town, with an active and dynamic social and cultural life. The many museums, parks, sports facilities, cafés, restaurants and clubs, as well as festivals organised all year round allow people of all ages insight into the town's history, culture and international life.
Safety	Cluj-Napoca is a truly safe town, with honest-minded people ready to give foreigners a hand all the time. Taxi-drivers, the youth, and generally all restaurants' and cafés' employees speak at least one foreign language (mainly English), so it's easy to get around.
Health and medical care https://www.ubbcluj.ro/en/studenti/campus/orarul_cabin_etelor_medicale	The University provides health care through its own medical clinic, as well as metal health clinic. One may seek medical assistance in any authorised medical unit, public or private. In case of any emergency/ disease, one needs valid identification and residence documents in order to get the proper medical assistance.
