

Paradornparp International House Application

The mission of Paradornparp International House (PIH) is to provide a safe, secure, comfortable, and healthy living community for residents. PIH promotes an active residential life program which provides a broad international perspective for students, faculty, and staff in a respectful and intercultural residential learning community at Payap University. Payap's policy requires all first year international programs students to live in (PIH).

Fill in your responses carefully, as they will affect your room assignment.
Incomplete responses will delay the processing of your choices.

You do not need to be admitted to Payap University's academic program before submitting your Application form.
